Laurent Perrier

Established in 1812, Laurent-Perrier is one of the most distinguished independent, family-owned Champagne houses.

The house was set up by Eugene Laurent in Tours-Sur Marne, and after marrying Mathilde-Emilie Perrier, the company name was born. Marie-Louise de Nonancourt, a member of another great Champagne family, Lanson, acquired the house in 1938 after the owners died. In 1948 her son, Bernard, who had spent much of the Second World War fighting in the Resistance, took over the business and began the process of rebuilding it after the war.

Laurent-Perrier Brut NV France, Champagne
